

Posted on June 21, 2011 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

"Der" in the last name of Armenians means the person is descended from a kahanah--married priest (Der-Der). "Mghts" in the last name of Armenians (ex: Mghts-Artinian) means the bearer's ancestor had made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. "Mghts" is short for "Mkadas"--holy in Arabic. These days some North American Armenians spell "Mghts" as "Mix."

"Der" in the last name of Armenians means the person is descended from a kahanah--married priest (Der-Der). "Mghts" in the last name of Armenians (ex: Mghts-Artinian) means the bearer's ancestor had made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. "Mghts" is short for "Mkadas"--holy in Arabic. These days some North American Armenians spell "Mghts" as "Mix."

