HORSES OF ST. MARK CATHEDRAL

Posted on April 10, 2015 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

According to legend, the famous horses of St. Mark Cathedral in Venice were given to Emperor Nero by King Drtad I of Armenia. Centuries after the horses wound up in Constantinople, Venetian raiders removed them from the city and took them to Venice.

According to legend, the famous horses of St. Mark Cathedral in Venice were given to Emperor Nero by King Drtad I of Armenia. Centuries after the horses wound up in Constantinople, Venetian raiders removed them from the city and took them to Venice.