

Posted on September 21, 2013 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

There's an Armenia Township in Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Its population was 166 in 2000. There were then 25 households and 44 families in the 18.2 square mile township. The township has no known links to Armenians or Armenia.

There's an Armenia Township in Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Its population was 166 in 2000. There were then 25 households and 44 families in the 18.2 square mile township. The township has no known links to Armenians or Armenia.

