Secretary of State Michael R. Pompeo met with Armenian Foreign Minister Zohrab Mnatsakanyan and Azerbaijani Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov separately today in Washington, D.C. Secretary Pompeo emphasized the need to end the violence and protect civilians. The Secretary also stressed the importance of the sides entering substantive negotiations under the auspices of the OSCE Minsk Group Co-Chairs to resolve the conflict based on the Helsinki Final Act principles of the non-use or threat of force, territorial integrity, and the equal rights and self-determination of peoples.

Following the meeting with Secretary Mike Pompeo Mr. Mnatsakanyan was interviewed by Christiane Amanpour. Click on the above picture or on CNN to view the video (09:16 min).

Mr Foreign Minister of Armenia Why do you waste your precious time with this little woman of cnn that has become the voice of misrepresentation. She treated you the way the bbc "reporter" treated you rudely. These are ignorant people who are paid well to recite to the uninformed public of the world what their shareholders (British petroleum with 17 billion investment in Azerbaijan) and the cnn stockholders draft for them to ask shamelessly. Why give them the opportunity to turn around and twist what you have told them. Ignore their interview requests. But THANK YOU Mr. Mnatzaganyan for educating this reporter about the aggression by Azerbaijan, isis i.e. turkey and others siding with them, to perpetrate Genocide on the peaceful population of Artsakh (Russian karabagh) and Armenia. Artsakh will win in spite of all odds against her!!!!
