ARMENIA LOSSES IN WWII

Posted on September 1, 2015 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Non-partisan Website Devoted to Armenian Affairs, Human Rights and Democracy

In 1939 Armenia's population was 1.5 million (the smallest—1.1% of Soviet population). From 1941 to 1945, around 500,000 Armenians were drafted to serve in the Soviet Army. The losses (more than 300,000) of Soviet Armenia were equal to that of the United States.

In 1939 Armenia's population was 1.5 million (the smallest—1.1% of Soviet population). From 1941 to 1945, around 500,000 Armenians were drafted to serve in the Soviet Army. The losses (more than 300,000) of Soviet Armenia were equal to that of the United States.

Keghart Non-partisan Website Devoted to Armenian Affairs, Human Rights and Democracy

Armenia Losses in WWII https://keghart.org/armenia-losses-in-wwii/