Dear Compatriots,

Armenia is experiencing a uniquely difficult time as it transforms from an oligarchic state to democracy. We are confident that you are all following the news and are aware of the obstacles. Progress is slow despite various parties', parliamentary factions' and individual MPs' support for the popular movement, and the ARF's announcement of its defection from the coalition with the RPA (Republican Party of Armenia – ՀՀԿ - Հայաստանի Հանրապետական Կուսակցություն).

Serzh Sargsyan's resignation seems to be a stalling tactic to calm down the rightful indignation and protest of the people of Armenia, and ultimately to subvert the popular demand to establish a just socio-economic and political system. The ruling Republican Party does not show any sign of relinquishing power to representatives of the popular movement. Karen Karapetyan, the acting prime minister, is resisting change; he is consolidating the levers of power in his hands to the extent of assuming functions that constitutionally are not his prerogatives. This shameful process leads only to prolong the outgoing dinosaur regime's persistence to maintain control, i.e. the continuation of oligarchy.

To forestall such a detrimental outcome the popular civic disobedience continues with the leadership of Nikol Pashinyan. The struggle to peacefully bring down the unpopular establishment is in full force. People are manning strategic locations. Far too many have been in almost-strike position without sufficient financial resources even for nourishment.

We know well that many of you want to participate in this movement and show your support. Since you cannot be in two places at the same time, we ask you to financially help this unprecedented peaceful effort, our youth, and our brethren in the homeland. A fraction of a round-trip ticket fare to Yerevan will go long way to assist our freedom-loving brothers and sisters in the homeland. Please follow the instructions below the dotted line.

Thank you for your cooperation.
