

AZERBAIJAN TERRITORIAL CLAIMS

Posted on September 1, 2015 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Azerbaijan, which was established as a state after WWI, makes territorial claims on Armenia, Iran, Russia, Georgia, and Iraq. According to Deputy Chairman of the Azerbaijan Popular Front Party MPs Gudrat Hasanguilyev and Bunyamin Gambarli, Tabriz, Derbent, Geokchai, Borchalior, and Kirkuk are integral parts of Azerbaijan. They also claim all of Armenia as the Erivan Khanate.

Azerbaijan, which was established as a state after WWI, makes territorial claims on Armenia, Iran, Russia, Georgia, and Iraq. According to Deputy Chairman of the Azerbaijan Popular Front Party MPs Gudrat Hasanguilyev and Bunyamin Gambarli, Tabriz, Derbent, Geokchai, Borchalior, and Kirkuk are integral parts of Azerbaijan. They also claim all of Armenia as the Erivan Khanate.

