

CARAHUNGE PETROGLYPHS

Posted on April 19, 2014 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Dr. Vahe Setyan says Armenia's Carahunge temples are 10,000 to 10,500 years old. They were used to worship light and the sun. They predate the emigration of Armenians and the export of their culture to Sumer and Egypt. The petroglyphs of Carhunge predate Egyptian petroglyphs by 7,000 years.

Dr. Vahe Setyan says Armenia's Carahunge temples are 10,000 to 10,500 years old. They were used to worship light and the sun. They predate the emigration of Armenians and the export of their culture to Sumer and Egypt. The petroglyphs of Carhunge predate Egyptian petroglyphs by 7,000 years.

