CHARLEMAGNE'S ARMY

Posted on September 11, 2014 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

When Charlemagne defeated the Moors in Spain, the emir's 50,000-strong army included Syrians, Avars, Huns, and Armenians, in addition to Moors, writes historian Turoldus. Charlemagne's army included Bavarians, Danes, Bretons, Flemings, Bergundians, Normans, and others.

When Charlemagne defeated the Moors in Spain, the emir's 50,000-strong army included Syrians, Avars, Huns, and Armenians, in addition to Moors, writes historian Turoldus. Charlemagne's army included Bavarians, Danes, Bretons, Flemings, Bergundians, Normans, and others.