

DOMESTICATION OF FARM ANIMALS

Posted on April 19, 2014 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

The domestication of farm animals in Armenia is one of the most significant reforms in the history of mankind which made comprehensive changes in the economic life of the society and exerted immediate influence on the formation of new mythology and systems of chronology.

The domestication of farm animals in Armenia is one of the most significant reforms in the history of mankind which made comprehensive changes in the economic life of the society and exerted immediate influence on the formation of new mythology and systems of chronology.

