

ETHNICALLY DIVERSE CAUCASUS

Posted on September 11, 2014 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

The Caucasus is one of most ethnically diverse in the world. In addition to the three major nations (Armenia, Azerbaijan, and Georgia), the area between the Black Sea and the Caspian is inhabited by Ajarians, Chechens, Circassians, Daghestanis, Lazh, Kartvelians, Ossetians, Ingush, Mingrelians, Abkhazians, Tatars, Svanetians, Kabardians, and Adygeans.

The Caucasus is one of most ethnically diverse in the world. In addition to the three major nations (Armenia, Azerbaijan, and Georgia), the area between the Black Sea and the Caspian is inhabited by Ajarians, Chechens, Circassians, Daghestanis, Lazh, Kartvelians, Ossetians, Ingush, Mingrelians, Abkhazians, Tatars, Svanetians, Kabardians, and Adygeans.

