Dear Readers,

With pleasure and pride the Keghart.com team has periodically replenished the website with new articles, op-ed pieces and announcements of significant cultural and other community events. Judging by the accumulated statistics, readership has reached a respectable level indicating that the content is well received. Unfortunately, due to health reasons I have to relinquish my position as publisher. However, our team will search for a new publisher who would carry on the non-partisan and progressive tradition that Keghart.com has established over the past five years and three months. Regular operations of the website will soon cease until further notice. Meanwhile, individuals who would like to have Five years of Keghart.com book will receive a PDF copy via e-mail. Please write to dikran@keghart.com

Farewell.
