We Will Reverberate, Till We Conquer Heartless-Minds We will reverberate and Our offspring will yell even after we sigh. Innocents' blood shall never dry. We will dig the desert caves to understand . . . Why were we slayed? We will remain praying Like Queen Anne*. She was beheaded by a king We were killed by so-called elite Ottomans. Both were religious but faithless After enjoyment, prayed and slayed virgin girls. Like Anne and Catharine, many Armenian girls walked Fearlessly, refusing to be touched by tyrants Who have religion but unbirthed with a natural faith. Virgin girls throw themselves in the Euphrates, Tigris Rivers, Having an immense faith in God. One god we all know, the same god called "Allah" of the Tyrant Even that god was afraid: He could not protect Armenians from the evilest blood-shed. Mothers, Virgin girls committed suicide . . . died dignified, Could not accept linking heartily . . . with those faithless. _____ * Queen Anne Boleyn (c.1507—Executed 1536) was Queen of England from 1533 to 1536 as the second wife of King Henry VIII. Henry's marriage to Anne, and her subsequent execution, made her key figure in the political and religious upheaval that was the start of the English Reformation.  Queen Catherine Howard (c.1521—Executed 1542), was the fifth wife of Henry VIII of England, and sometimes known by his reference to her as his "rose without a throne". She was beheaded after less than two years of marriage to Henry on the grounds of adultery committed while married to the King.
