

HOW TO BAKE GHAPAMA

Posted on March 17, 2016 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Ghapama is an Armenian pumpkin dish which is consumed during Christmas and New Year banquets. The pumpkin is stuffed with rice, butter, plum, apricot, raisin, cinnamon, honey, and nuts and then baked. It's particularly popular in the Republic of Armenia.

Ghapama is an Armenian pumpkin dish which is consumed during Christmas and New Year banquets. The pumpkin is stuffed with rice, butter, plum, apricot, raisin, cinnamon, honey, and nuts and then baked. It's particularly popular in the Republic of Armenia.

