

IN INDIA FOR TWO THOUSAND YEARS

Posted on June 30, 2016 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

While it's well-known that Julfa Armenian merchants were major players in Indian import and export starting in the 17th century, Armenian trade connection to the country goes back two millennia. Armenian merchants and artisans established a presence in India around the time of Christ, especially in the southern coastal towns.

While it's well-known that Julfa Armenian merchants were major players in Indian import and export starting in the 17th century, Armenian trade connection to the country goes back two millennia. Armenian merchants and artisans established a presence in India around the time of Christ, especially in the southern coastal towns.

