"IS THIS TRUE?"

Posted on April 26, 2009 by Keghart

Category: Opinions

A timely and appreciated correction. I wish it becomes a tradition in our Armenian Media in Armenia and the Diaspora to be more responsible for what and how news items are reported for the benefit of all of us.

Dikran

From: PanARMENIAN.Net Editorial

To: dikran@keghart.com

Sent: Monday, April 27, 2009 2:40 AM
Subject: letter

Dear Dikran, sorry for our mistake. Please, take away this news

Menq shalvel enk, nerogamit linek

--
PanARMENIAN.Net Editorial

URL: http://www.panarmenian.net
Mail: editorial@panarmenian.net
Tel: (+374 10) 551498

Dear Readers of Keghart.com,

Preceding with a question "Is this True" in the subject line, a very respected friend, author of many articles, brought to my attention the press release by PanArmenian News that is pasted below and forwarded to groong site.

This is completely misleading and it is not clear why PanArmenian News has released it without checking the source. Was it an innocent error?

A timely and appreciated correction. I wish it becomes a tradition in our Armenian Media in Armenia and the Diaspora to be more responsible for what and how news items are reported for the benefit of all of us.

Dikran

From: PanARMENIAN.Net Editorial

To: dikran@keghart.com

Sent: Monday, April 27, 2009 2:40 AM
Subject: letter

Dear Dikran, sorry for our mistake. Please, take away this news

Menq shalvel enk, nerogamit linek

--
PanARMENIAN.Net Editorial

URL: http://www.panarmenian.net
Mail: editorial@panarmenian.net
Tel: (+374 10) 551498

Dear Readers of Keghart.com,

Preceding with a question "Is this True" in the subject line, a very respected friend, author of many articles, brought to my attention the press release by PanArmenian News that is pasted below and forwarded to groong site.

This is completely misleading and it is not clear why PanArmenian News has released it without checking the source. Was it an innocent error?

The statement was not launched by ARFD, but by Keghart.com ; the authorship belongs solely to this site, and it was composed without any consultations with third parties. Furthermore, I'd like to underline that Keghart.com has no relations at all with ARFD, nor with any other organisation/party; it's an independent personal website managed only and only by myself.

Respectfully,
Dikran Abrahamian.

ARFD TO LAUNCH AN INTERNET PROTEST CAMPAIGN AGAINST ARMENIAN-TURKISH AGREEMENT

PanArmenian News, April 25 2009, Armenia

/PanARMENIAN.Net/ ARFD launched an internet protest campaign against Armenian-Turkish agreement.

Campaign statement runs as follows, "We, the undersigned, strongly condemn the agreement reached between Turkey and Armenia on the eve of the 94th Anniversary of the Genocide of the Armenians. Carried with haste and absolute absence of transparency, it raises grave concerns. As it stands, it serves only the interests of the authorities in Armenia. They shamelessly caved in to foreign pressures and interests, thus compromising Armenia's security and the aspirations of the Diaspora Armenians," Keghart.com reported.

http://groong.usc.edu/news/msg266845.html