MONTRÉAL CITY COUNCIL COMMEMORATES THE GENOCIDE

Posted on April 20, 2010 by keghart.com

Category: Opinions

Montréal, April 19, 2010 – On the occasion of the 95th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, newly elected Montreal City Councilor Harout Chitilian read a proclamation officially commemorating the Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. Prior to proceeding with his reading, Mr. Chitilian expressed his appreciation to the City Council Members for unanimously adopting the Genocide proclamation during the previous 12 years. The proclamation was seconded by Mary Deros, city councilor of Parc-Extension. She shared with the council the tragic repercussions of the Genocide on her family.
The Genocide of Armenians was first commemorated at Montréal City Council on April 17, 1997. Noushig Eloyan, city councilor then and current Liberal Party Candidate in the Federal district of Ahuntsic, had introduced the proclamation of commemorating the anniversary.

Montréal, April 19, 2010 – On the occasion of the 95th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, newly elected Montreal City Councilor Harout Chitilian read a proclamation officially commemorating the Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. Prior to proceeding with his reading, Mr. Chitilian expressed his appreciation to the City Council Members for unanimously adopting the Genocide proclamation during the previous 12 years. The proclamation was seconded by Mary Deros, city councilor of Parc-Extension. She shared with the council the tragic repercussions of the Genocide on her family.
The Genocide of Armenians was first commemorated at Montréal City Council on April 17, 1997. Noushig Eloyan, city councilor then and current Liberal Party Candidate in the Federal district of Ahuntsic, had introduced the proclamation of commemorating the anniversary.

Please leave your remark below in the section devoted to comments.