

OPEN LETTER TO HIS EXCELLENCY SERZH SARGSYAN, ROA PRESIDENT

Posted on February 28, 2009 by keghart.com

Category: Opinions

By a group of concerned individuals - Armenian, English & French Texts - March 1, 2009

One year has gone by since the tragic events that unfolded in the streets of Yerevan on March 1-2, 2008, following the presidential elections. Armenia's security forces opened fire at civilians who were protesting against electoral irregularities and fraud. The violent show of force resulted in 10 deaths and numerous injuries, thus inflicting a deep wound to a people's psyche.

By a group of concerned individuals - Armenian, English & French Texts - March 1, 2009

One year has gone by since the tragic events that unfolded in the streets of Yerevan on March 1-2, 2008, following the presidential elections. Armenia's security forces opened fire at civilians who were protesting against electoral irregularities and fraud. The violent show of force resulted in 10 deaths and numerous injuries, thus inflicting a deep wound to a people's psyche.

