Translation to English: "Is There Any Future With ... False Promises? Ապագայ կա՞յ...սուտ խոստումներով": Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan, EU president Ursula Von der Leyen, U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinken, and EU foreign policy chief Josep Borrell during a joint press conference in Brussels. - Pashinyan: Armenia does not have any issues with Turkey. Do you promise to protect me from Putin's revenge? - EU: When Armenia becomes a member of the European Union, we will protect you. Georgia has been waiting for 18 years, you wait for your turn too! - Erdogan and Aliev rejoicing on the background after kicking Armenia out of Armenian Artsakh (Karabagh).

In an article Mr. Zaven Gudsuz, a French Armenian economist questions, “They [the West] help [Armenia] but what do they want? In his concluding remarks he writes, "Armenophilia and sympathy are foreign notions in diplomacy. As for the economy, interest in Armenia is minimal against Azerbaijan. What remains are the interests and intentions of NATO: allow Armenia to free itself from the Russian “yoke" and install military bases in a country bordering Iran".

Sadly, who cares about what is happening in Artsakh / Armeniia? NOBODY. The US has enough problems of their own, GB could not care less, France has tried but nothing of any consequence. THE UN - that useless and pathetic world humanitarian organisation are as bad and even worse than what they stand for, the REST of Europe? They like to talk but are hesitant in doing anything about the problems facing Armenians, in other words "It's not our problem". We need gas and oil which is more important to us in Europe than Armenia and or even Artsakh for that matter. Who cares? frankly NOBODY. But they are all in it with the Ukraine by selling arms and more propaganda than you can think of. Where is Australia in all this? NOWHERE, the less said about what Australia stands for the better it is. Ukraine and Ukraine alone, Armenia? if we (Australia) try and do anything in assisting Artsakh/Armenia (Armenians) we might be condemned by the lousy turks. So who do we as Armenians and Artsakh turn to?? anybody? guess? I am disgusted and saddened by the pathetic attitude of the so-called major powers of the world. _____

Russia is contracted with Armenia, but disrespects Armenia. The West respects Armenia without any contract. I fail to see the difference. It seems that when push comes to shove, we are ultimately left to ourselves. Thus, we first must build ourselves up before or concurrently.

The only country that was obligated to defend Armenia under a signed agreement between Armenia and Russia, failed to fulfill its obligations. The West has NO obligation under any agreement, especially when Armenia is part of the Customs Union, under the leadership of Russia, and has a Russian military presence in Armenia. Further, Russia and its cronies continue to degrade Armenia, as "nothing", do not recognize Armenia's independence, and do not recognize Armenia's sovereign borders. In contrast, the West recognizes Armenia's sovereign borders, and independence and respects Armenia as an equal and valuable country on this planet. Armenia's government has to defend itself, secure the borders, and do everything necessary not to be crushed by Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Russia combined. At least Armenia is a respected country by the West, unlike, Russia's total disrespect, and continuous threats towards Armenia to suppress Armenia to become a satellite state like Belorussia...Armenia is NOT Belorussia...

Ինչքան չպետք է սիրես ինքնիշխան երկիրդ ու չհարգես երկրիդ ժողովրդվար, ազատ ընտրություններով ընտրված ղեկավարին, որպեսզի նման ստորացնող ծաղրանկար անես: Իսկ ինչու դավաճան Ռուսաստանի ու նրա ֆաշիստական իշխանությունների մասին խոսք չունեք ասելո: Դաշնակները ինչպես միշտ մեջքից են խփում ու դավաճանում Հայաստանին: Ցավոք, պատմությունը կրկնվում է:

EU ist keine gemeinnützige Organisation, Armenien wird teurer bezahlen! Google translation: EU is not a non-profit organization, Armenia will pay dearly!
