STEVE JOBS QUESTIONS TOUR GUIDE IN INSTANBUL

Posted on June 1, 2015 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Steve Jobs, the founder of Apple, was raised by his adoptive parents Clara Hagopian and Paul Jobs. Steve Jobs' grandmother (Victoria Artinian) was born in Smyrna in the 1890s. Jobs knew very well about the Armenian Genocide. In 2007 when he was a tourist Hagia Sophia in Istanbul, he asked his guide Asil Tuncer what happened to the Christians: "You Muslims, what did you do to so many Christians? You subjected 1.5 million Armenians to genocide. Tell us, how did it happen?" Jobs then cut the day short and returned to his yacht and then sailed from Istanbul.

Steve Jobs, the founder of Apple, was raised by his adoptive parents Clara Hagopian and Paul Jobs. Steve Jobs' grandmother (Victoria Artinian) was born in Smyrna in the 1890s. Jobs knew very well about the Armenian Genocide. In 2007 when he was a tourist Hagia Sophia in Istanbul, he asked his guide Asil Tuncer what happened to the Christians: "You Muslims, what did you do to so many Christians? You subjected 1.5 million Armenians to genocide. Tell us, how did it happen?" Jobs then cut the day short and returned to his yacht and then sailed from Istanbul.