Keghart.com (renamed Keghart.org) was launched by Dr. D. Abrahamian of Ontario, Canada in September 2007. The website based magazine opened a new page in contemporary Armenian journalism in the Diaspora, a model which subsequently was adopted by others. Its non-partisan nature, the guiding principles to uphold human rights and freedom of speech, and inclusion of diverse viewpoints from across the Diaspora and Armenia made "Keghart" distinctive.
