

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF (MOSTLY) ARMENIAN WORDS

Posted on September 30, 2012 by Keghart

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF (MOSTLY) ARMENIAN WORDS

(Back by popular demand)

Speaker: Jirair Tutunjian
Editor, Keghart.com

Friday Nov. 9, 2012 at 8 p.m.
AGBU Alex Manoogian Cultural Centre,
Toronto
930 Progress Ave., 2nd floor

- ❖ After 1,600 years, Armenian alphabet's origins still a mystery
- ❖ 40 pairs of Armenian and English words which are similar (sequel to last year's list)
- ❖ Armenian words from Arabic, Assyrian, Greek, Hebrew, Persian and Turkish
- ❖ What countries are named after cows, rabbits, fowl; copper, silver, gold; Romans, Italians, Spaniards; what cities are named after Armenia?
- ❖ Etymology as political tool
- ❖ Fascinating Stories of 40 Armenian words
- ❖ Fascinating stories of 30 English words
- ❖ Q&A

Over the past 40 years, Jerusalem-born Mr. Tutunjian has been the award-winning editor of six Canadian magazines. Currently he edits novels for an American publisher and acts as editor of Keghart.com

Category: Opinions

Click here to view the video presentation

Click here to view the video presentation

