UNDERDOG VICTORIES IN HISTORY

Battle of Avatayr - 451 AD:
Greatly outnumbered by invading Persians, Armenians fought to the death to remain Christian and succeeded in maintaining their distinct identity.

Battle of Sardarabad - 1918 AD:
Greatly outnumbered by Turks, Armenians - many of them genocide survivors and civilians - stood up to invading Turkey, fought to the death, and established a free and independent Armenia.

Battle of Artsakh Independence - 1988-1994 AD:
Greatly outnumbered, Armenians faced down Azeri occupation, fought to the death, and re-established the sovereignty of their historic Armenian homeland.

“O. Armenian people, your only salvation is in the power of your unity.”
- Yeghishhe Chatehls, Armenian writer-activist (1897 -1937)
