TURKISH STATION TELECASTS NEWS IN ARMENIAN

Posted on January 5, 2010 by Keghart

Category: Opinions

Istanbul-based SU TV launched, on Jan. 5, the first all-Armenian news program ever telecast from Turkey. The 11-minute program featured seven news stories, all about Turkey, except for the last item about the world chess championships which included players from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Egypt and Israel. The telecast, in Western Armenian, was "read" by news reader Mehtap Kepenek. Since the audio and her lip movements were not in synch, it was possible that Ms. Kepenek's newscast was in Turkish, later dubbed into Armenian.

Istanbul-based SU TV launched, on Jan. 5, the first all-Armenian news program ever telecast from Turkey. The 11-minute program featured seven news stories, all about Turkey, except for the last item about the world chess championships which included players from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Egypt and Israel. The telecast, in Western Armenian, was "read" by news reader Mehtap Kepenek. Since the audio and her lip movements were not in synch, it was possible that Ms. Kepenek's newscast was in Turkish, later dubbed into Armenian.

Keghart.com readers are invited to leave their comments.