Journalist Jirair Tutunjian

Will introduce the book and the author

Power-point presentation of significant excerpts from the British press and parliamentary debates will be illustrated/shared by

Lecturer & Independent Researcher Katia M. Peltekian

The two-volume anthology is a magisterial opus of interest to historians, politicians, researchers, journalists, students, and readers who believe that the non-Armenian public, and particularly the British public, should be made aware of the war-time Britain's (government, media, and public) knowledge of the Genocide of the Armenians.

Limited number of the two-volume historic report will be available for $120.

Ms. Peltekian will autograph her remarkable book.
