

UNUSUAL SKILL

Posted on March 17, 2016 by Keghart

Category: Did You Know?

Edward Ter Ghazaryan is the founder of the art of the micro-miniature. He could write on human hair, etch a backgammon on a single rice and gemstone petals 160 times thinner than human hair. He placed a statue of Charles Chaplin inside the eye of the needle. A musician, he was a member of Armenia's Philharmonic Orchestra during the Soviet era.

Edward Ter Ghazaryan is the founder of the art of the micro-miniature. He could write on human hair, etch a backgammon on a single rice and gemstone petals 160 times thinner than human hair. He placed a statue of Charles Chaplin inside the eye of the needle. A musician, he was a member of Armenia's Philharmonic Orchestra during the Soviet era.

