President Donald Trump's popularity keeps dipping in the country he so blatantly misrules. Globally, the failed casino owner is competing for the title of the "World's Most Hated Man" with genocidier Benyamin Netanyahu. While Americans are justified in hating Trump, the world isn't.

Let's go back to the early 19th century to explain Trump's topsy-turvy popularity and significance in world history.

---In 1812, taking advantage of Britain's preoccupation with the Napoleonic Wars, the United States went to war against Britain.

---In the 1840s, the United States was at war with Mexico. As a result, it grabbed huge chunks of Mexico.

---Through subtle threats, the United States gobbled Florida.

---Later in the century, there was the Spanish-American War engineered by Washington.

---Late in the 19th Century the U.S annexed Hawaii.

---It secretly took part in revolutions, civil wars, and coups up and down Latin America.

---It took part in WWI, WWII.

---Declared Cold War against the Soviet Union.

---Five years after the end of WWII, American troops fought in the Korean War. That was followed by the Vietnam War.

---The U.S bombed Yugoslavia and openly promoted the disintegration of Yugoslavia. Its actions resulted in civil wars.

---In recent decades, Americans were at war against Iraq (twice), Afghanistan, Syria, Sudan, Yemen, and Libya.

---There was also the war against terror.

---America participated in Israel's wars against Arabs, particularly Palestinians.

---America went to war against Hezbollah and Iraqi patriotic groups.

---A few months ago, it attacked on Iraq with co-conspirator Israel.

---For more than a century, the US has played havoc in Central America -- from Panama to Guatemala.

---It attacked Grenada and continues to economically suffocate Cuba.

---It has played havoc in Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, and Chile.

---It recently attacked Venezuela, kidnapped its President and put a choke-hold on the country's energy sources.

---America has engineered quick attacks against dozens of states.

---It has intruded into the affairs of scores of states (Lebanon in 1958), organized coups and kidnappings, toppled leaders, and assassinated a number of rulers and revolutionary leaders.

---America, through Trump, wants to grab Canada and Greenland.

While illegally interfering in the affairs of practically every country, the United States has explained its actions as peacemaking and democracy promoting. Most of the world pretended it believed American aggression was a selfless effort to improve the lot of humanity.

But then came Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney, who recently said in Davos: "We knew the story of the international rules-based order was partially false, that the strongest would exempt themselves when convenient, that trade rules were enforced asymmetrically. And we knew that international law applied with varying rigour depending on the identity of the accuser or the victim.

"The fiction was useful…we largely avoided calling out the gaps between rhetoric and reality…

"The bargain no longer works."

What was Carney saying? Who was he talking about?

He was talking about the traditional foreign policy of the West led by the United States.

Accusation is one thing, but when the accused boasts about its imperialist-avaricious-violent intentions, then it's game over.

For more than two centuries, America has portrayed itself as a well-meaning Boy Scout. Millions have given credence to the American claims.

Through his words and actions, Trump has unintentionally torn the mask of American foreign policy.

The world owes a big "thank you" to the Orange Balloon. His predecessors (Clinton, Bush, Obama) and their cabinets, the so-called think tanks (actually sewer tanks), the Neocons, the Deep State must hate the unintentionally truth-spouting sociopath who gave the 250-year-old game away.

Trump…from criminal dunce to international hero.

Hail to the Trumpgutan.
